

Accounting for Real Estate Agents

"As you would know, being the Principal in charge of a real estate agency is no picnic in the park. You experience the highs and lows associated with a variable property market and have to contend with ever increasing REIV and Government regulations, ethical standards, weekend work, long hours and difficult vendors."

Brad Denny

Here at Hyde Cooper Wells we understand the real estate business. Over the years, our team of accountants have mentored dozens of real estate agents through the various stages of their business life cycle, from start up right through to sale. The team offer you experience and an intimate understanding of the real estate industry.

Thinking of Starting or Buying Into a Real Estate Agency?

As a business start-up specialist we can provide you with a comprehensive range of accounting, tax and business coaching services. To help you make the right opening moves in your real estate agency we have created a number of practical tools including a comprehensive start up expense checklist. This tool is designed to help you identify all your potential start up costs broken down into categories including leasehold improvements, IT, marketing, equipment, furniture & fittings, professional services, licenses and working capital. These figures then automatically feed into an integrated cash flow budget to help you identify any finance requirements and they can also tuck neatly into a business plan.

Accounting for Real Estate Agents
